

Heatmap visualization of the matrix A . The color scale ranges from yellow (low values) to red (high values). The diagonal elements are red, indicating high values, while the off-diagonal elements are yellow, indicating low values.

